STUDENT PROFILE

LAROD SNYDER
Native American Student Association - Vice President
Phi Sigma Nu Fraternity, Inc. - Communications Chair
Gates Millennium Scholars Association

Tribal Affiliation: Cherokee
Hometown: Westville, OK
Major: Applied Sociology- Social Services Emphasis

“American Indian Studies and Native American activities are important for raising awareness at Oklahoma State University and the Stillwater community to promote better understanding of tribal citizens and customs. Also, through these programs, individuals have the opportunity to personally engage in Native culture.”

“The American Indian Studies minor will assist me in my education/career by preparing me to serve people and communities throughout Indian Country. Upon graduation, I plan on pursuing a position within Tribal or Community Relations for the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma.”

AMIS.okstate.edu