STUDENT PROFILE

MORGAN TWO CROW

Tribal affiliation: Choctaw, Cherokee, Arikara, Mandan, Hidatsa, Cheyenne River Sioux
Hometown: Garland, Texas
Major area of study: Political Science Pre-Law

“The American Indian Studies Minor has allowed me the opportunity to learn about various aspects of Native American history, treaties, and laws that have shaped tribal nations into what they are today… and will equip me with the necessary tools to someday pursue the field of Native American law.”

“Classes like the Bureau of Indian Affairs have given me a greater appreciation for the problems faced in Indian country. I have developed a deeper passion for the betterment of my people by simply being well educated about our past.”

AMIS.okstate.edu